14	An evidentiary hearing on supervised release revocation in this case was scheduled before
15	me on May 8, 2007. The United States was represented by AUSA Adam Cornell and the
16	defendant by Stewart P. Riley. The proceedings were digitally recorded.
17	Defendant had been sentenced on or about January 12, 2006 by the Honorable Marsha J.
18	Pechman on a charge of Conspiracy to Commit Bank Fraud, and sentenced to 8 months custody,
19	5 years supervised release.
20	The conditions of supervised release included the standard conditions plus the requirements
21	that defendant participate in drug dependency treatment and testing, abstain from alcohol, submit a single checking account for all financial transactions, not possess identification in any but defendant's true name, reside in a community corrections center for up to 180 days, and participate in AA/NA meeting while residing at the CCC. (Dkt.109.)

On June 19, 2006, defendant admitted to violating the conditions of supervised release by failing to successfully complete the community corrections center placement. (Dkt. 127.) 06 Defendant was sentenced to forty-six days in custody with credit for time served, and 58 months of supervised release. Defendant was ordered to participate in daily AA/NA meetings unless directed otherwise by his probation officer (Dkt. 130.)

In an application dated December 7, 2006 (Dkt. 132), U.S. Probation Officer Jerrod Akins alleged the following violations of the conditions of supervised release:

- 1. Failing to report as instructed by the probation officer, in violation of standard condition No. 2.
- 2. Failing to report for drug testing on November 13 and November 20, 2006 in violation of special condition No. 1.

Defendant was advised in full as to those charges and as to his constitutional rights.

Defendant admitted the alleged violations and waived any evidentiary hearing as to whether they occurred.

I therefore recommend the Court find defendant violated his supervised release as alleged, and that the Court conduct a hearing limited to the issue of disposition. The next hearing will be set before Judge Pechman.
